

ELITE ENERGY CONSULTANTS, NEXIA EDWARDS MARSHALL AND ENERGYSYS: Championing Change Together Today for a Net Zero Tomorrow

Elite Energy Consultants is delighted to announce a new partnership with Nexia Edwards Marshall to provide emissions tracking services to the energy industry. This partnership builds on the highly successful collaboration between Elite Energy Consultants and EnergySys, and delivers exciting new capabilities and resources to clients seeking to transition to net zero.

"We are thrilled to be partnering with Nexia Edwards Marshall," said Stephen J Finnie, CEO of Elite Energy Consultants. "The partnership will leverage the expertise of both firms to provide a comprehensive suite of services, including emissions monitoring, compliance management, and annual legislative reporting. It aligns with our values and our mission to support the energy industry in its transition to net zero."

"At Nexia Edwards Marshall, we are excited to collaborate with Elite Energy Consultants and EnergySys to provide our clients with comprehensive, end-to-end solutions for their emissions tracking needs," said Brett Morkunas, Partner for Nexia Edwards Marshall. "We are experts in emissions tracking and compliance, and through our partnership with Elite Energy Consultants we have all the tools we need to drive meaningful change in the energy industry."

Dr Peter Black, CEO of EnergySys, emphasised the benefits to the industry. "EnergySys is the leading no-code/low-code cloud application platform for the energy industry, and will play a critical role in delivering the aims of this new partnership. The team already has extensive experience of solutions delivery for emissions tracking and data management, and can rapidly configure new features as the market requirements evolve. It will enable operators to identify areas where they can reduce their carbon footprint and optimize their production processes"

The partnership brings together the expertise and resources needed to enable operators to achieve their sustainability goals and thrive in a rapidly changing energy landscape. Initially, the service will be offered to the Australia and New Zealand market with plans to extend the service to global markets over the next twelve months.

Having established the partnership, Elite Energy Consultants and Nexia Edwards Marshall are now actively collaborating with clients to support their emissions tracking needs.
