Belinda is a Senior Manager within Nexia Edwards Marshall's Business Consulting and Taxation divisions.

Belinda works closely with clients to help them meet their tax compliance obligations by preparing special-purpose financial statements and income tax returns. She also advises on a range of tax and accounting matters for small to medium businesses and not for profit entities.

Formal qualifications

Belinda holds a Bachelor of Commerce degree from the University of South Australia and is a Member of Chartered Accountants Australia and New Zealand.

Experience

Her range of skills coupled with a high attention to detail enhances her ability to provide clients with responsive and thorough business advice.

Assignment

Audit of a client's records to ensure employee leave entitlements were being applied for, approved, and recorded correctly in the payroll and accounting records.

Process and outcome

Belinda commenced the process by meeting with the client to identify potential issues. She reviewed all steps involved in the process for recording and maintaining employee leave. Inspections were conducted between the payroll records against all supporting documents to determine the correct leave entitlements for the period in question. The findings were reported to Management, including suggested improvements to the process to ensure accurate leave entitlements are maintained in future.
