Ready for what's next

We equip our team with the vital skills to thrive in tomorrow's world, so we can guide you to success, no matter what this looks like.

Healthcare Industry

Eliza has a keen interest in the healthcare industry, with a background and multiple qualifications in the health sector that allow her to have the knowledge of business intricacies and challenges facing those in the health industry.

Eliza is also the financial delegate (director) on a board in the health and not-for-profit industry. In this position, she oversees the financial management of the organisation and is involved with the strategic direction and business development of the organisation.

Business Consulting

Eliza assists clients with the day-to-day operations of their business including cash flow management, budget analysis and monthly management reports, as well as providing them with annual tax and financial reporting services. Eliza has a wealth of knowledge that she uses to assist many clients with management and board reporting, GST considerations, cash flow management and business efficiencies.

Benchmarking

Eliza is proficient at undertaking market research to benchmark performance for clients. This enables them to measure their business against others in their industry and identify key areas in which potential efficiencies can be achieved.

Benchmarking gives clients the opportunity to have a full business review across various aspects of performance, highlighting strengths, weaknesses, gaps and opportunities. This lays the foundation for a road map action plan to enact change.

Management Reporting

Eliza can produce both dashboard reports and monthly management reports, which includes providing reports for boards to analyse and track organisational performance.

Experience

Eliza's experience is varied, allowing her to assist clients with thoughtful analysis and interpretation in most areas of their business.

Assignment	Process and outcome
Restructure and consolidation	Assisted a client with their restructure and tax consolidation. Research was undertaken regarding the CGT concessions available to the client including Div. 615 and s 124M rollovers. Assisted multiple clients with business restructures and acquisitions in both Australia and New Zealand.
Assisted a client with a proposed acquisition.	Undertook market research and benchmarking for the client to understand how they placed in their industry. This assisted the client in their negotiations with the proposed acquirer.
Productivity reporting.	Assisted a client in the health industry with productivity reporting regarding staff performance to ensure a high level of service delivery was maintained.
