Jamie is Nexia Edwards Marshall's Managing Partner and the Partner responsible for the firm's Audit and Assurance division.

Jamie is experienced in the provision of accounting and assurance services to a variety of clients.

His many years of experience has ensured that he has specialist knowledge in providing assurance services to a range of organisations including those in finance, education, healthcare, wholesale and retail trade, manufacturing and community services.

Formal qualifications

Jamie is an ASIC Registered Company Auditor, approved self-managed superannuation fund auditor and approved external examiner of solicitors trust accounts in South Australia and Northern Territory. He also holds a Bachelor of Arts in Accountancy, is a Fellow of Chartered Accountants Australia and New Zealand and CPA Australia.

Professional expertise

Audit and Assurance

Jamie undertakes assurance engagements for a large number of clients across a range of industries.

A specialised audit Partner, his services include external audit, risk management, accounting system reviews, financial reporting and technical advice, international financial reporting standards and corporate governance.

Forensic Accounting

Jamie has also assisted in the preparation of expert reports for litigation matters where these have involved audit-related issues. These matters have included the reconstruction and review of accounting records as a result of fraud, the analysis of financial records in connection with matters including corporate failures and the noncompliance with Australian Accounting and Auditing Standards.

Corporate governance

In addition to Jamie's audit roles, he is an experienced company secretary. Jamie was the company secretary for an ASX listed entity for many years, providing governance and financial advice during that time. He has served and continues to serve on the audit committees for a variety of entities including large state government departments in health and family services.

He is a former board member of the Nurses Board of South Australia and the Repatriation General Hospital.
